

The children in Celyn class had fun making poppy wreaths and learning all about why we have Remembrance Day. They used a variety of craft techniques to make their wonderfully creative poppy wreaths!

