

DT – Volcanoes project.

In Celyn class, as part of a DT project, the children have designed, created and built their own volcano scenes. They have been problem solving when things didn't go to plan, communicating and helping each other along the way.

