

UK Parliament Visitor

The children were lucky enough to have a visitor educating them on the UK parliament, our government, elections, members of parliament, the House of Commons, House of Lords and much more! The children took part in interactive activities and worked well with their partners. The children showed they were curious and asked lots of questions.

